

Ready, Steady, Remodel

Renovation by Stonebreaker Builders of St. Charles

Catch the spark of creativity from 300 award-winning contractors, creative craftsmen, distinguished designers, landscape architects, pond purveyors, green remodelers, home automation gurus and flooring specialists at The Old House New House Home Show. This event returns September 24 and 25 to Pheasant Run Resort, located at 4051 East Main Street in St. Charles, for its 27th outstanding year. Event hours are Saturday 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. and Sunday 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. Admission is $7 for adults. Seniors over 62 and children under 18 are admitted free and parking is free. A portion of the ticket proceeds benefits The Habitat for Humanity of Northern Fox Valley.

Homeowners can visit with experts, take in a workshop and see the latest trends in kitchens, baths, basements, additions, insulation, waterproofing, roofing, heating and cooling, windows doors and more.

Lou Manfredini will meet and greet fans on Sunday from 1 to 3 p.m. A workshop on "Learning the Secrets to a Great Kitchen" will be presented by Normandy Builders each day at noon. The "Enhancing Your Curb Appeal" workshop will be offered on Saturday at 1 p.m. by Country Construction. Complimentary one-on-one design consultations will be offered by Loren Reid Seaman throughout the weekend. Editorial Staff from Country Sampler Publications will be scouting for homes decorated in country, farmhouse or primitive styles. The Visiting Nurse Association of Fox Valley will offer their popular flu shot clinic throughout the weekend.

This event is an outstanding resource for homeowners ready to remodel. For a printable $1 off admission coupon, directions to Pheasant Run or an up-to-date exhibitor list, please visit www.kennedyproductions.com.
